GENERAL INFORMATION

How do I apply?

Complete the application form, including the short medical questionnaire. Premiums are calculated from the first of the month following the date of application to March 31. Cheques should be made payable to CA Insurance Plans West. Age for calculation of premiums means age at the beginning of the policy year (April 1). Premiums increase with age for all insurance other than Accidental Death and Dismemberment.

Is a medical exam required?

Great-West Life, at its expense, may request a medical examination of any applicant. You will be notified if a medical is required.

When does the insurance take effect?

Insurance will take effect on the date the completed application is approved by Great-West Life. In the event the applicant is not insurable, any premium deposit will be refunded.

When are premiums due?

Premiums are due annually on April 1. Insurance will lapse on May 1 if the premium has not been paid. Premiums may be paid monthly by automatic withdrawals.

Are premiums waived during disability?

For long term disability and office overhead, premiums will be waived retroactively after six months of total disability. For term life, if you become totally and permanently disabled, premiums will be waived as long as disability continues, but not past age 71. Satisfactory proof of disability must be submitted within one year.

Are LTD benefits taxable?

Under current legislation, LTD benefits are received tax-free, as long as the premiums have not been deducted from taxable income. Our plan assumes you are paying the premium personally.

Can I switch from standard to non-smoker rate?

Insured's who stop using tobacco products for one year may apply for non-smoker rates.

Is my insurance guaranteed?

Your individual insurance coverage will not be cancelled, nor will renewal be refused, provided you maintain your eligibility and pay the premiums within 30 days of due date, while the master policy is in force.

Is this insurance portable?

This insurance, except for Office Overhead Expense, may be continued wherever you move, providing eligibility is maintained and the annual premiums are paid as they fall due. In the event of disability, you must return to Canada in order for benefits to commence. Applications for additional coverage can only be accepted from members resident in Canada and United States.

Eligibility

Members must be insured for life benefits (a minimum of $10,000) with CAIPW and must normally work a minimum of 20 hours per week.

Maximum Benefit

Coverage may be purchased in units of $100. Your benefit is calculated at 60% of the first $11,668 of Monthly Earned Income, and 50% thereafter rounded to the nearest $100, to a maximum benefit of $10,000/month.

“Earned Income” means the income earned from your employment or profession, after business expenses but before income taxes, in the previous 12 or 24 months, whichever is greater.

If your total monthly income from all sources during total disability exceeds 100% of net after tax monthly earned income prior to total disability, the benefit will be reduced by the amount of excess.

Total monthly income from all sources will include:

- Any monthly income payable under the benefit,
- Payments from an employer or partnership, excluding return of capital and/or sale of ownership interest,
- Any disability benefits payable under the Canada/Quebec Pension Plan, excluding benefits for dependents or any cost of living increase,
- Any disability benefits payable under any Workers' Compensation Act or any other government plan,
- Any disability benefits payable under any other association, group or franchise insurance plan,
- Any income from a retirement or pension plan,
- Any damages for loss of income recovered from a third party, arising out of the same circumstances that caused your disability.

Definition of Disability

Total Disability

You will be considered totally disabled if, due to sickness or injury occurring while insured under the plan, you are unable to perform the essential duties of your normal occupation and are not employed in any other gainful occupation.

Partial Disability

You will be considered partially disabled if, due to sickness or injury, you are only able to perform some of the normal duties of your regular occupation or you are engaged in and receiving earned income from any other gainful occupation, providing your earned income is reduced at least 20% from its pre-disability level as a result of the disability.

Benefit Payments

Benefit payments begin after the chosen waiting period has expired and are payable to age 65. For disabilities occurring between the ages of 63 and 69, benefits are payable for the earlier of 24 months or age 69. Benefits are based on earnings in the 12 or 24 months immediately preceding the disability.

Benefits for partial disability will equal your full insured benefit reduced by the ratio of your earned income received while disabled to your earned income prior to disability.

If you die while receiving benefit payments, a 3 month lump sum payment will be made to your eligible survivor.

Cost of Living Adjustment

Each April 1st, if you have been receiving benefits, your monthly benefit will be adjusted for inflation using the Consumer Price Index, subject to a maximum increase of 5% per annum.

An option to increase the adjustment up to the lesser of CPI or 10%, is available for a 15% surcharge on the current premium schedule.

Recurrent Disability

If total disability from the same or related cause recurs within six months of your return to full-time work, benefit payments will resume without the usual waiting period.

Termination

Your Long-term Disability Insurance will terminate on the date you retire or stop working, other than for reason of disease, injury or pregnancy. For short leaves of absence, coverage may continue for 6 months or to the end of the current premium year, whichever is greater.

Limitations and Exclusions

A claimant must be under the care of a qualified physician and receiving appropriate treatment. Disabilities resulting from self-inflicted injury, active participation in a criminal offence, insurrection or war are not covered.

Claims must be submitted within 90 days of the end of your qualifying period.

CRITICAL ILLNESS

The Good News

Medical advances have greatly increased our ability to survive many life-threatening illnesses. However, few of us are prepared for the financial burdens that can threaten our lifestyle and security. Costs such as private nursing, home or vehicle modification, and childcare are additional strains during a difficult time.

Critical Illness is designed to provide financial security when illness puts assets and savings at risk so you can focus on what's important — recovering your health.

What are the chances of incurring a critical illness? Statistics show that:

Heart Disease

- One in four Canadians will contract heart disease.
- 75,000 individuals suffer heart attacks each year.

Cancer

- One in three Canadians will develop some form of life threatening cancer during their lifetime.
- 125,000 new cancer cases are reported annually.

Stroke

- One in thirty-three 45 year olds has a stroke prior to age 65.

Multiple Sclerosis

- Canada has one of the highest rates of multiple sclerosis in the world, especially amongst young people.

Restoring Peace of Mind

Many expenses are associated with a critical illness, many of which are not covered by existing private and public health care plans. These costs can impact your financial health and deplete your savings and assets. Critical Illness enables you to maintain your lifestyle and financial independence if you are stricken by a critical illness. For example:

Private Nursing

Many people want to recover from a critical illness in the comfort of their own home. The Critical Illness benefit can be used to hire nursing or other personal staff.

Medical Care

More Canadians are choosing to seek out their own medical care, whether in the US or elsewhere. This benefit can provide you with the funds you require for treatment.

Lifestyle Adaptation

Certain critical illnesses, such as stroke or blindness, can cause permanent physical limitations. This benefit can be used to pay for modifications to your home or the purchase of specially-equipped vehicles for transportation.

The Coverage you need...

Critical Illness covers the four most common critical illnesses; heart attack, stroke, life threatening coronary artery bypass surgery, and cancer; plus: Multiple Sclerosis, loss of speech, severe burns, deafness, coma, kidney failure, major organ transplants, Parkinson's, Alzheimer's, paralysis, blindness, aortic surgery, benign brain tumor, heart valve replacement, loss of independent existence, loss of limbs, motor neuron disease, occupational HIV.

Eligibility

Members of the Institutes of CA's of BC, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, and their spouses are eligible to apply. All applicants must be resident in Canada or the United States and less than 65 years old. Insurance will take effect on the date the completed application is approved by Great-West Life.

Benefit

The Critical Illness lump sum benefit will be paid to you following a survival period of 30 days after the diagnosis of a covered critical illness. Benefits for multiple sclerosis and paralysis will be paid after a survival period of 180 days.

Coverage for life-threatening cancer will not begin until 90 days after the effective date of coverage.
